

Mayo Clinic – UCF Mini Symposium:

Proposals are sought from any health-related field of study including cancer, neurosciences, transplant, cardiovascular diseases, individualized medicine, regenerative medicine or health-care delivery. Projects can involve but are not limited to expertise in nano-biotechnology, optics and photonics, biomedical engineering, and computer science.

Poster presentations are being invited from faculty for the symposium. If you are interested in presenting a poster, please reply to mchokshi@ucf.edu via email by Thursday, April 6th with the following information: Name, College/Department and Research Topic/Area of Collaboration. Once all requests for posters have been received by our office, you will be notified whether you have been selected to present your poster at the symposium.

Here is the agenda:

11 am -12 pm : Poster session and lunch (Posters will be displayed in the atrium of the HEC building.)

12pm - 12:15 pm: Dr. Elizabeth Klonoff, VP for Research and Dean of Graduate Studies

12:15 pm - 12:45 pm: UCF-Mayo award winners from 2016

12:45 pm - 2:45 pm: Presenters from UCF and Mayo Clinic

2:45 pm – 2:50 pm: Dr. Tushar Patel (Mayo) closing remarks

Presentations for key research areas for collaboration will be given for the 12:45 pm to 2:45 pm session by the Associate Deans of Research or their representative from each relevant College/Center.

Presentations by individual faculty on their research are not being invited.

There is no cost for attendance. A “request for proposals” is expected to be released by mid to late April with proposals due in mid-July.
