

Applicant Institution Proposal Submission and Award Acceptance

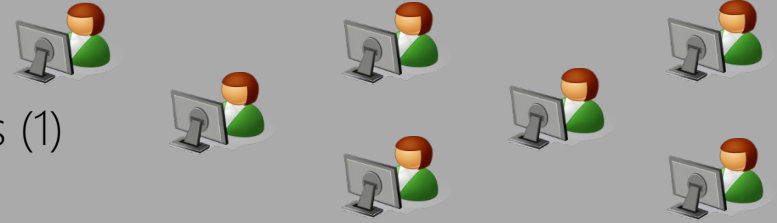

(1) UCF Research Foundation will be identified as the Applicant Institution for all proposals requiring an IRS 501(c)3 designation regardless of sponsors type; includes any proposal and/or award terms not agreeable to UCF as identified by the Sponsored Programs or Contracts offices.

(2) Federally funded clinical trials, include federal flow thru, regardless of sponsor type.

Applicant Institution Proposal Submission and Award Acceptance

UCF SPONSORED PROGRAMS

- Verification of Applicant Institution
- Proposal review and submission for both Applicant Institutions (1)
- Proposal short title begins with RF:
- Subcontract processing in accordance with established business process

UCF RESEARCH
FOUNDATION

- Review of terms and conditions for all UCF Research Foundation proposals

- (1) UCF Research Foundation will be identified as the Applicant Institution for all proposals requiring an IRS 501(c)3 designation regardless of sponsor type; includes any proposal and/or award terms not agreeable to UCF as identified by the Sponsored Programs or Office of Research Contracts offices.

Applicant Institution Proposal Submission and Award Acceptance

NONPROFIT or FOUNDATION

Nonprofit: Typically funded by the government, foundations, institutions and individuals
Also includes universities and colleges

Foundation: Typically funded by corporate entities or families

Applicant Institution can be changed in Award record in HRS Grants

FEDERAL FLOW THROUGH

Applicant institution selected based on the proposal recipient

Not based on prime sponsor

EXCEPTIONS

- Proposals with:
- 501(c)3 status requirement
 - Proposals with terms and conditions not agreeable to UCFBOT
 - Proposals with other compelling reasons for exception submitted to Celeste Rivera-Nuñez and Terri Bigham for review and decision

